DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Fujita et al, EP 1,179,567.

Reference to Fujita et al teaches the claimed polymer from living radical polymerization with the required at least one crosslinkable silyl group see paragraph 0035). The required oxygen-curable substance, and specifically tung oil, is taught in paragraph 0144. The plasticizer is also taught, and the combination of all preferred ingredients is either taught or rendered prima facie obvious from the teaching of the reference. The composition is taught as a curable composition and the claimed end uses would, therefore, be at least prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, absent evidence of unexpected results commensurate in scope to the claims.
